

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DONALD GEORGE FLETCHER,

Petitioner,

No. CIV S-03-00366 ALA HC

vs.

SCOTT P. RAWERS, Warden,

ORDER

Respondent.

The matter before the Court has been pending for a significant period of time. As a result, some of the authority relied upon by the parties may have been overruled or otherwise reexamined. If the parties learn of the existence of any authority that may have a material impact on the case before the Court after the parties' briefs have been filed, the parties must promptly advise the Court of that new authority.

If there has been any such change in the authority applicable to this case, the parties are directed to file, on or before April 24, 2008, simultaneous briefs consisting of no more than 7 pages, discussing any arguments based on the supplemental authority.

DATED: April 7, 2008
